Re: United States v. Ali Al Hunaity
Crim. No. 18-723 (KMW)

Dear Judge Williams:

Please accept this letter, in lieu of more formal response, to defendant Alia Al Hunaity's pro se motion for return of property. Docket Entry ("DE") 135. As discussed below, the Government remains willing to return certain items to her. However, the defendant needs to contact the assigned Homeland Security Special Agent to make arraignments to retrieve the items.

The defendant seeks return of certain items that were seized from her home on September 18, 2018. Specifically, the defendant seeks return of the following:

- H.P. laptop
- iPad
- Dell Latitude laptop (GQZR4M1)
- iPhone A1457
- Sony Vaio Laptop (SVE1435CXW)
- Skytex 16gb tablet
- U.S. Passport
- Joran Passport
- Misc. documents.

DE 135-1. Counsel for the defendant made a similar request on September 28, 2021. See DE 113.

Since October 7, 2021, the Government has been willing to return certain items. See DE 115. Again, the Government is willing to return the following:

- The iPad;
- The Dell Latitude Laptop;
- One iPhone A1457;
- The Sony Vaio Laptop;
- Defendant's U.S. Passport (expired);
- Defendant Jordian Passport; and
- Misc. documents (as long as those documents do not pertain to the victim).

According to prior filings and agreement by defense counsel, the following items were the victim's and therefore the defendant has no right to them:

- The H.P. Laptop; and
- The Skytex Tablet.¹

To retrieve the items, the defendant's needs to appear at the Homeland Security Investigation Office located at 620 Frelinghuysen Avenue, Newark New Jersey and sign a return of property receipt. To make arrangements to pick up the property at a mutually convenient time, the defendant can email the Special Agent Ronald Conyers at Ronald.C.Conyers@hsi.dhs.gov.

Respectfully submitted,

PHILIP R. SELLINGER
United States Attorney

¹ On October 25, 2021, Judge Kugler held a telephone conference on the defendant's prior return of property motion (DE 113). During that conference, the Government agreed to return certain items and defense counsel agreed that the HP laptop and the Syktex tablet belonged to the victim and the defendant had no right to it.
